

One or more of the caterers on this list must provide any food or beverage served for consumption at an event in a Seattle Center rental facility, other than KeyArena or McCaw Hall.

These caterers have the permits, licenses and insurance required by Seattle Center and have a contract with Seattle Center in which they agree to pay a fee of 15% of the amount invoiced to Licensee. This fee may be passed on to Licensee at the discretion of the individual caterers. Fees help support Seattle Center programs and facilities.

♻ - a caterer using green, sustainable practices.

⌘ - a caterer who is licensed to serve alcohol. One or more must be used for any alcohol served within our campus facilities, including any donated alcohol (such service is at the caterer's discretion and service fees may be charged).

If you have questions regarding catering at Seattle Center, please contact Katherine Nyborg at (206) 684-7206, or by email at katherine.nyborg@seattle.gov.
